Allerton Park & Retreat Center

515 Old Timber Road, Monticello

A beautiful 1,500-acre estate that blends nature, history and art — with formal gardens, more than 100 outdoor sculptures, forest and prairie trails, a historic 1900 mansion, and a visitor center. It's a peaceful escape for hiking, picnicking, concerts, weddings, or just exploring the gardens and forest. Take a class at the Farms, stroll the lighted Holiday Glow, or enjoy an outdoor concert!

Eli Field

959 Iron Horse Place, Monticello

A 20-acre, purpose-built remote control airfield run by the Monticello Model Masters. Featuring a 50 × 800 ft paved runway, a large grass landing strip, a concrete pit area, covered pilot's shelter, hangar space, food prep area, and two RC car tracks. Watch for seasonal events!

Monticello Railway Museum

992 Iron Horse Place, Monticello

A non-profit, all-volunteer heritage railroad experience, this working museum operates vintage steam and diesel-powered train rides on weekends from May through October, plus special events (like their holiday Polar Express). On site, tour restored locomotives and rolling stock (sleeping cars, cabooses, Railway Post Office cars, and more), explore historic depots like the Nelson Crossing Depot or the Wabash Depot in downtown, and learn about the rich railroading history of central Illinois.

Piatt County Trail Blazers

810 Trail Blazer Lane, Monticello

A family-oriented equestrian and rodeo club, the Piatt County Trail Blazers host an annual rodeo, junior high and high school-sanctioned rodeos, speed and fun shows, and community events. The grounds include a permanent arena with bucking and timed-event chutes, grandstands and announcer's stand, plus a clubhouse that hosts concessions, meetings, parties, and a public Sunday breakfast November through February.

Nick's Park

209 N. Hamilton St., Monticello

A short 2-block walk from downtown, this cozy 1-acre community park — established in 1992 in memory of Nick SanAntonio — offers a welcoming space for families and kids. The park features a covered pavilion, seasonal restrooms, and picnic tables. The modern playground is fully fenced, with separate areas for younger kids and older children, with climbing structures, swings (including parent-facing "expression" swings), slides, a tire swing, and nature-themed play features.

Pfc. Robert C. Burke Memorial Park

601 W. Railroad St., Monticello
